

From: Scott Elkins
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/17/02 6:17pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I am not satisfied with Microsoft's proposed settlement. They have used unfair practices to expand their market share, and this proposal would only continue to foster their undeserved growth.

A fair settlement does not have to be crippling to Microsoft, but it should be punitive enough to discourage their shady business practices. I cannot, in any way, discover how this settlement could be considered in the long run as anything less than a reward.

Scott Elkins